

How to Apply

All applicants are to consult with “A Booklet of Application Guidance” which is published each year and attached with the application form. The program offer each year may have different procedures and specific requirements. Therefore, follow announcement of admission to make sure that the application is completed.

If you are interested in applying for NIDA, you may apply:

Check out the eligible applicants, date, time and place for the entrance exam from the paper announcements